2024

8th Annual
Bay Area Reproductive Mental Health Conference

OVERVIEW

This conference centers on the interface between obstetrics, gynecology, and psychiatry, with national experts on diverse topics that include examining marijuana use in the menopause transition, yoga in pregnant patients with mental illness, the current state of Black maternal mental health, assessment of trauma & loss in the perinatal period, and a discussion of identity changes in motherhood particularly in minority populations. This year's conference brings us back in person at the brand new Pritzker Building at UCSF Mission Bay for community building and networking over lunch.

TARGET AUDIENCE

The course is designed for all clinicians who work in women's reproductive health, including physicians (OB, family medicine, pediatrics, psychiatry), midwives, nurse practitioners, psychotherapists, and social workers among others.
